There will be no acts of terrorism at the olympics in Barcelona, Spain. However, two water related upcoming olympic events will be subject to political incidents. The few athletes which are physically harmed are harmed only due to the nature of the sport, not to any act of terrorism. For example, a runner named Jerry may injure his knee.

There will not be any successful world-wide acts of terrorism associated with the upcoming olympics and certainly no related Middle Eastern terrorist activity. For the most part, there will be peaceful, respectful interactions among the countries competing.

This year's olympics will reveal more advertizing and publicity than ever! In some ways, the competition will seem even more intense, further illustrating a radically changing world.

- E. SESSION SUMMARY:

Word has "gotten out" not to hit the Israelis during this activity because of the moratorium on West Bank settlement construction recently imposed. The "powers-to-be" do not want to upset the cart.

However, there is a strong perception that a hybrid group has organized, a new coalition as it were, consisting of Iraqi and Iranian members. There is a third "player" involved with this group; an in-country connection. One individual is coming from the Bakka Valley via AMMAN. He is a free-lancer and considered a loose cannon. Someone is also coming out of MALTA.

There has been a persistent feeling that an activity is associated with or near the water. It involves a small boat used to ferry people and/or equipment back and forth. An object that is towed underwater is already in place. The perception is of this object being towed in front of and under the "ferry" via another boat (see diagram).

Also an activity is planned that has something to do with bicycles; either a bicycle repair place or storage area. It will involve a place where there is a horseshoe or hairpin turn/curve in some race. There will be an intentionally staged accident which will "jam-up" the people into a group. A remotely controlled explosion is then intended to be activated.

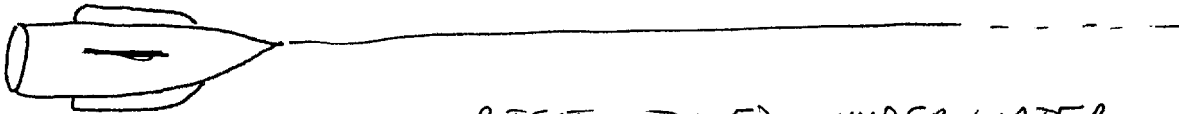

Another very strong perception is an activity planned for when both U.S. and Israeli teams (of what event, I don't know) are clustered together inside of a building for either competition or by circumstance. A photo/camera crew will be at the heart of this intended operation.

There is an overall feeling of flexibility in the ops planned for the Olympics. The intentions by the various terrorists are almost opportunistic this time. The operatives will be very mobile and the missions have been constructed to take advantage of this mobility. However, there is conflict operations planned by the factions involved. The ETA wants to have a solo performance. The ETA connection to the hybrid terrorist group (Iraqi/Iranian) wants to seriously "screw" with the world through the Olympics.

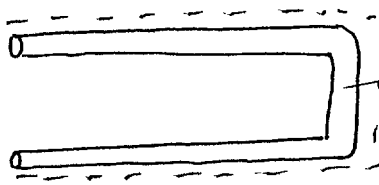

Some other group (e.g. the PLO) via an "unknown" source will provide some intelligence in an attempt to derail and stop the planned terrorist activities.

There is a ship in place which contains weapons and explosives. The concepts of bicycles and cameras are also associated with this vessel. The ship looks like a miniature version of a larger ship which is typical of the style or type. It has a dark hull (possibly black) which has recently been repainted over red. The super structure is light, but not white; maybe a light gray. There are two hold covers exposed on deck and a single mast in the bow area.

It has a multi-national connection. The word for "iron" in the vessel's native tongue is associated with the boat. The name of the vessel is in two parts and is divided into 7 or 8 characters followed by 2. The name JASMINE TA (?) as well as the countries of TURKEY, CYPRUS and ETHIOPIA where perceived.

E. SESSION SUMMARY:

During the course of the olympics terrorist threats will be made by "communist radicals" in support of their political beliefs. The name "Sanchez" surfaced phonetically as one of the terrorists involved.

It is believed that "Stalwart" and "Hoslter" (whose names surfaced during Session 01) are representative of political personalities associated with the terrorist scenario.

There is a possibility that the use of "howitzers" may be involved in the terrorist act.
